Deadline to display 'best before', mfg date for loose sweets extended till Oct 1: FSSAI

Jul 24, 2020

Food safety regulator FSSAI on Friday extended by two months till October 1 the deadline for traditional sweet makers to display the 'best before' and manufacturing date of non-packaged sweets. The Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI) had issued an order in this regard in February and later extended the deadline till August 1.

"In view of disruption and lockdown due to COVID-19 pandemic and representation received from sweets association and stakeholders, it has been de..
