

United News of India
India's Multi Lingual News Agency

Food safety & hygiene workshop at VMSIIHE on Nov 16, 17

Panaji, Nov 5 (UNI) Recognising the significance of standards of hygiene, food quality and safety, V M Salgaocar Institute of International Hospitality Education (VMSIIHE) will be organizing a two-day workshop on Food Safety and Hygiene.

According to a statement here on Monday, the workshop is open to all and will be conducted at the institute.

A professional in the field, Sanjay Dave, Advisor to Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI), Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India, will conduct the workshop on November 16 and 17, 2018.

Participants of the workshop will receive a certificate by CII FACE (Confederation of Indian Industry).

The course is directed to all Food Handlers, Chefs, Street Vendors, Shopkeepers and Hospitality staff.

Please log in to get detailed story.