

United News of India

India's Multi Lingual News Agency

CII holds SKA Asia Quiz Competition on Food Safety at Osmania University

Hyderabad, Aug 23 (UNI) Confederation of Indian Industry's Food and Agriculture Center of Excellence in association with FSSAI organized a Asia level quiz competition on food safety for the students at Center of Technology, Osmania University here on Thursday.

CII has launched Surakshit Khadya Abhiyan (SKA), campaign to strengthen nationwide action on Safe Food for All, towards preventing and controlling food borne diseases in our country.

As part of this several competitions such as drawing, skit, walkathons, posters competitions are held across the country including training on Good Agricultural Practices for farmers.

The Quiz competition was inaugurated by Mr S Dave, Chairman, Surakshit Khadya Abhiyan, Dr K Shankar, Director, Telangana Food Safety Department, Prof. R Shyam Sunder, Principal, University College of Technology, Osmania University and Dr Basava Rao, Dean, Osmania University and Dr Srinivas Maloo, HoD- Food Technology, UCT, Osmania University.

Please log in to get detailed story.