

FOOD REGULATORY SYSTEM- DENMARK

1. Ministry of Environment and Food of Denmark:

i) The Ministry of Environment and Food of Denmark is responsible for administrative and research tasks in the area of environmental protection, farming and food production.

2. DVFA:

i) Deals with food health and safety issues from farm to fork

ii) Food control and veterinary inspections are handled by three regional veterinary and food control centres. The regional centres are local information centres for food related topics, supplying information and giving advice to consumers, livestock owners, businesses and practising veterinarians.

3. The Danish Agriculture Agency:

i) An agency responsible to create the optimal conditions for sustainable growth and green transformation in the fields of: Agriculture, plants and horticulture.